

Do You Have a Story About the Civil Rights Era & Historic Sites in Anne Arundel County?

Please join us at one of three public stakeholders meetings to discuss two important grant projects funded by the National Park Service African American Civil Rights Historic Preservation Program and the Maryland Heritage Areas Authority.

Saturday, January 13 from 12:00-2:00 pm

Keynote speaker-Professor Dale Green

Galesville Community Center

916 West Benning Road, Galesville

Saturday, January 27 from 12:00-2:00 pm

Keynote speaker-Janice Hayes-Williams

Bates Legacy Center

1101 Smithville Street, Annapolis

Saturday, February 17 from 12:00-2:00 pm

Keynote speaker-Tony Spencer

Linthicum Community Library

400 Shipley Road, Linthicum Heights

We need your help to document African American civil rights era sites throughout the County involving recreation and leisure, including beach resorts, ball fields, swimming pools, playgrounds, and more. We also want your stories about other types of African American historic sites in the Four Rivers Heritage Area, south of Annapolis.

Share your experiences & schedule an oral history interview

RSVP ShareYourStory@losttownsproject.org

Call 410-222-7792 with questions

